Labour Commissioner, the Employer immediately called him and reinstated him in service on 16-07-2018. He stated that thereafter the Employer filed its reply dated 20-07-2018 before the Assistant Regional Commissioner (Central) stating that he has been employed by them and the matter was adjourned to 08-08-2018. He stated that the Employer sent a letter dated 03-08-2018 to the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central) falsely alleging that there was a full and final settlement arrived between them with the Workman on the grounds of resignation. He stated that subsequently on 09-08-2018, the Employer in spite of fully knowing the fact that the said settlement was refused by him which was done assuming his resignation from services and forwarded the demand draft dated 30-07-2018 of Rs. 31,500/- towards full and final settlement to him without any details. He stated that thereafter the matter was posted on 16-08-2018 and on 31-12-2018 an order was passed that the issue has been settled by paying the Workman an amount of Rs. 31,500/- towards his full and final settlement. He stated that in spite of the letter sent by him to the Employer that the said demand draft was not cleared on account of expiry of the period. He stated that thereafter a letter dated 9-08-2018 along with a demand draft of

Rs. 31,500/- dated 30-07-2018 was sent to him by the Employer for full and final settlement of his dues and his resignation from the Employer's Company. He stated that no such settlement was agreed by him and thereafter an order was passed by the Assistant Regional Commissioner stating that he has been paid Rs. 31,500/- as full and final settlement. He stated that thereafter on 26-10-2018, he deposited the said demand draft dated 30-07-2018 in his account in Central Bank of India, Satarda branch on 26-10-2018. He stated that the said demand draft could not be cleared on account of expiry of the period. He stated that upon receiving the said memo from the bank dated 15-11-2018, he immediately sent a letter to the Employer that the demand draft dated 30-07-2018 of Rs. 31,500/- is not cleared. He stated that thereafter by letter dated 27-08-2019, he wrote a letter to the Assistant Labour Commissioner stating that he was refused employment by the Employer. He stated that he was refused the employment by the Employer illegally without any reason. He stated that an order dated 31-12-2018 has been partly obtained by suppression of facts. He stated that he is unemployed since August, 2018 and that he is the sole bread earner in his family. The Workman therefore, prayed that an order of immediate reinstatement in service with the Employer and for an order of payment of full wages of Rs. 5,500/- p.m. from the date of removal from the services till his reinstatement. The Workman also prayed for an order of payment of Rs. 31,500/- as back wages as per order dated 31-12-2018.

4. This court framed the following issues on 20-09-2021 at Exb. 6.

1. Whether the Workman/Party I proves that he was working continuously for the Employer w.e.f. 13-05-2011 till 01-11-2017?
2. Whether the Workman/Party I proves that the action of the Employer in terminating him employment w.e.f. 01-11-2017 is illegal and unjustified?
3. Whether the Workman/Party-I is entitled to any relief?
4. What order? What award?
5. My findings to the aforesaid issues are as under:
 - (a) Issue No.1 : In the Affirmative.
 - (b) Issue No. 2 : In the Negative.
 - (c) Issue No. 3 and 4 : As per final order.

6. The Workman filed synopsis of written arguments. None remained present for the Employer at the time of final arguments nor filed its synopsis of written arguments. I have carefully perused the entire records of the present case including the synopsis of written submissions made by the Workman.

REASONS:

To prove his case, the Workman examined himself and produced on record certain documentary evidence in support of his oral evidence. The said evidence adduced by the Workman remained unchallenged for want of denial.

Issue No. 1:

7. The evidence on record indicates that the Workman was in continuous employment of the Employer w.e.f. 01-05-2011 till the alleged refusal of his employment w.e.f. 01-11-2017 as a Sailor on the barge of the Employer. Hence, it is held that the Workman proved that he was working continuously for the Employer w.e.f. 01-05-2011 till the alleged refusal of his employment w.e.f. 01-11-2017. The issue No.1 is therefore answered in the Affirmative.

Issue No. 2:

8. While deciding the issue No.1 hereinabove, I have discussed and come to the conclusion that Workman was in continuous employment of the Employer w.e.f. 01-05-2011 till the alleged refusal of his employment w.e.f. 01-11-2017.

The Workman alleged and also stated on oath that he was refused the employment w.e.f. 01-11-2017. The Workman also stated on oath that he has not signed any settlement with the Employer as alleged by the Employer. However, there is nothing on record to show that the Workman had informed the Employer that he has not settled the issue of his employment with the Employer nor produced on record any letter of protest duly acknowledged by the Employer stating that he has not signed any settlement nor returned the demand draft of Rs. 31,500/- issued by the Employer to him. On the contrary, the evidence on record indicates that the Employer had issued a demand draft for an amount of Rs. 31,500/- towards the alleged full and final settlement as he agreed for his own resignation. The evidence on record indicates that the Workman deposited the said demand draft of Rs. 31,500/- in his Central Bank of India, Satarda branch on 26-10-2018. The evidence on record indicates that the said demand draft of Rs. 31,500/- dated 30-07-2018 has not been cleared on account of 'date expired'. It is only after failure to clear the demand draft of Rs. 31,500/- in his account in Satarda branch of Central Bank of India, the Workman raised the dispute before the Asstt. Labour

Commissioner, Vasco, Goa. The aforesaid act on the part of the Workman of accepting the said demand draft of Rs. 31,500/- and depositing the same in his bank implies that the Workman has accepted the full and final settlement of his services. Hence, it is held that the Workman failed to prove that he had been refused employment by the Employer w.e.f. 01-11-2017 is illegal and unjustified. In the circumstances, it is held that the action of the Employer in allegedly refusing employment to the Workman w.e.f. 01-11-2017 is legal and justified. The issue No. 2 is therefore answered in the Negative.

Issue No. 3:

9. The Employer has issued a demand draft for an amount of Rs. 31,500/- towards the full and final settlement as he agreed for the resignation of services. The evidence on record indicates that the Workman deposited the said demand draft of Rs. 31,500/- in his Central Bank of India, Satarda branch on 26-10-2018. The evidence on record indicates that the said demand draft of Rs. 31,500/- dated 30-07-2018 has not been cleared on account of 'date expired'. In fact, the demand draft deposited by the Workman was within time limit. The Workman is therefore entitled for an amount of Rs. 31,500/- along with interest @ 10% p.a. from the date stated on the said demand draft till actual realization/payment by the employer through issue of a new valid instrument of payment.

In view of above, I pass the following order:

ORDER

1. It is held that the action of the management of M/s. Streamline Shipping, 4th floor, Kosambi Bldg., Vasco-da-Gama, Goa in refusing employment to Shri Krishna R. Kalangutkar, Sailor, with effect from 01-11-2017, is legal and justified.
2. The Employer, M/s. Streamline Shipping, Vasco-da-Gama, Goa, is hereby directed to pay to the Workman, Shri Krishna R. Kalangutkar an amount of Rs. 31,500/- along with interest @ 10% p.a. from the date of its maturity till its actual realization.
3. No Order as to Cost.

AWARD

1. In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947) the Government of Goa by Order dated 17-12-2021 bearing No. 28/55/2021-LAB/627 referred the following dispute for adjudication by this Labour Court-II.

"(1) Whether the action of the Management of M/s. Private Guards in terminating the services of Shri Santosh Madgaonkar, Night Supervisor, with effect from 13-10-2016, is legal and justified?"

(2) If not, to what relief, the workman is entitled?"

2. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. LC-II/IT/26/2021 and registered A/D notice was issued to the Parties. In pursuance to the said notice, the Employer duly served and represented by Adv. Shri P. J. Kamat. Notice issued to the Workman remained unserved as the same is returned back with postal endorsement "addressee left without intimation". No any other address of the Workman was found to serve him.

3. Heard Ld. Adv. Shri P. J. Kamat, appearing for the Employer.

4. In the case of Baldev Singh v/s The Judge, Central Government Industrial Tribunal & Labour

Court & ors., reported in 2007 II CLR 685, the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan by referring the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Virendra Bhandri V/s Rajasthan State Road Corporation Ltd. & ors., reported in (2002) 9 SCC observed as under:

".....a reference of certain Industrial Dispute was made to the Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court. The workman did not appear before the Tribunal, therefore, Tribunal held that there remains no Industrial Dispute. However, subsequently, the Appropriate Government again referred the dispute to the Tribunal on the same question and on this occasion, the Tribunal adjudicated the matter and made an award. The High Court held that the finding recorded by the Tribunal in the first reference amounted to an "award" and, therefore, second reference was incompetent. The Hon'ble Apex Court held that all that was stated was that the parties concerned had not appeared before the Tribunal and in such an event, the Tribunal should have noted its inability to record the finding on the issue referred to it, not that the dispute itself does not exist. When there is no adjudication of the matter on merits, it cannot be said that the industrial dispute does not exist. If the industrial dispute still exists as is opined by the Government, such a matter can be referred under Section 10 of the I.D. Act, as Industrial Disputes are preferred to the Labour Court or the Industrial Tribunal for maintenance of industrial peace and not merely for adjudication of the dispute between two private parties. Therefore, it was permissible for the Government to have made the second reference."

The principle laid down by the Hon'ble High Court in its aforesaid judgment binds a precedent upon me.

5. Applying the law laid down by the Hon'ble High Court in its aforesaid judgment, in the case in hand, no pleadings have been filed by the Workman as well as Employer before this court and as such I am unable to record the findings on the issue referred to me.

In the circumstances, I pass the following order:

ORDER

1. It is hereby held that this court is unable to record the finding on the issue referred by the Appropriate Government.

2. No order as to costs.

Inform the Government accordingly.
